

HŪ HONUA

Bad for the

Water
Land
Air
Climate

Infographic by:
Mālama Hāmākua
malamahamakua.org

Releasing pollutants affecting air quality

Will emit 3x more CO<sub>2</sub> than natural gas and 1.5x more CO<sub>2</sub> than coal

Clearcut 5 acres of trees per day

More erosion and LANDSLIDES

Drive 5-6 logging trucks per hour to the power plant

Adding over 2 dozen hazardous chemicals to the water

Hū Honua
District of North Kona

Water Consumption
21 million gallons/day
11 million gallons/day

Inject the heated contaminated water into the aquifer via injection wells that are 400 feet deep...

...AND less than 100 feet from the edge of UNSTABLE CLIFFS

Endangered Hawksbill turtle feeding grounds put at risk

Tainted wastewater will percolate into water supply and into coastal waters where local fishermen fish